AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENCE

54. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

55. Defendants failed to properly investigate Sigmund prior to being hired as Scoutmaster of Troop 639.

56. Defendants failed to properly supervise Sigmund as Scoutmaster of Troop 639.

57. As a result of Sigmund's wrongful acts, Plaintiff has sustained serious and permanent physical, psychological, and emotional injuries.

58. The aforementioned wrongful acts were performed negligently and recklessly by Defendants.

59. The wrongful acts of Sigmund were willful, malicious, intentional, and were committed with full knowledge that they constituted a crime and that they would cause permanent physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff.

60. Defendants are liable for Sigmund's sexual abuse under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff demands judgment against all Defendants, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all the lower courts.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

62. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

63. At the time of Sigmund's misconduct and sexual abuse, he was acting at the direction of, and with authority invested in him by Defendants, and was otherwise acting in the course and scope of his employment by Defendants.

64. Therefore, Defendants are liable for Sigmund's conduct under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

65. The sexual abuse of Plaintiff, when he was a minor, was extreme and outrageous, beyond all possible bounds of decency.

66. In abusing Plaintiff, Sigmund intended to cause, or disregarded the substantial probability of causing, severe emotional distress.

67. Although Defendants knew or should have known that Sigmund was a danger to children, they failed to prevent Sigmund from sexually abusing Plaintiff.

68. Defendants permitted Sigmund to abuse his position as Scoutmaster and acted wantonly, recklessly, and with complete disregard for the consequences to Plaintiff and others.

69. Because of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered severe physical, psychological, and emotional injury.

70. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff demands judgment for intentional infliction of emotional distress against all Defendants, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all the lower courts.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

71. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

72. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Sigmund was hired or otherwise retained, appointed, or employed by Defendants.

73. The position for which Sigmund was employed required him to work closely with children, such as Plaintiff.

74. Defendants owed a duty to minors entrusted to their care, and Defendants, through their hiring, appointment, and/or retention of Sigmund as a Scoutmaster for Troop 639, held Sigmund out as a role model for young boys who could be safely trusted.

75. Defendants had a duty to exercise due care in hiring, retaining, and supervising Scoutmasters, in order to prevent dangerous individuals, such as Sigmund, from children involved in the Boy Scouts.

76. Defendants breached their duty by negligently hiring, appointing, retaining, supervising, and directing Sigmund, and in failing to protect Plaintiff from Sigmund.

77. As a result of Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff was sexually abused by Sigmund.

78. The sexual abuse of Plaintiff, when he was a minor, caused him to fear for his own safety, unreasonably endangered Plaintiff's physical safety, and caused severe emotional distress, including physical, psychological, and emotional injury.

79. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff demands a judgment for negligent infliction of emotional distress against Defendants in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all the lower courts.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION: PUNITIVE DAMAGES

80. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 79 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

81. The actions of Defendants herein were malicious, willful, and grossly negligent.

82. The conduct of Defendants was done with the utter disregard as to the injuries that would ensue and with depraved indifference to the health and well being of children, and to the fact that Defendants knowingly subjected children, including Plaintiff, to sexual predators.

83. Defendants, by and through their agents and representatives, conspired to cover up incidents of sexual abuse of minors by Scoutmasters, including Sigmund, and to prevent disclosure, prosecution, and civil litigation including but not limited to: failing to report incidents of childhood sexual abuse to law enforcement or child protection agencies; denying reports of abuse that were substantiated; aiding criminal child molesters in evading detection, arrest, and prosecution; allowing pedophiles to cross state and international borders for purposes of gaining access to uninformed parents' children, whom they could sexually abuse; failing to warn; and failing to seek out and redress the injuries its adult Scoutmasters had caused.

84. Based on these actions, Defendants, by and through their agents and representatives, conspired for the unlawful purpose of concealing and suppressing information on the danger that Sigmund posed to unsuspecting children.

85. Upon information and belief, Defendants engaged in a plan of action to cover up incidents of the sexual abuse of minors by Scoutmasters and prevent disclosure, prosecution, and civil litigation, including but not limited to: failing to report incidents of abuse to law enforcement or child protection agencies; concealing abuse they had substantiated and failing to seek out and redress the injuries its Scoutmasters and leaders had caused; and failing to advise local scouting agencies of the rampant problem of sexual abuse of scouts by Scoutmasters and leaders and that Defendants' Ineligible Volunteer Files was ineffective at curbing the problem.

86. Based on these actions, the Defendants engaged in fraudulent concealment.

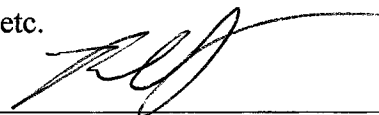

87. As a result of Defendants conduct that was wanton, reckless, malicious, and a conscious indifference and utter disregard of its effect on the health, safety, and right of others, Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages in the amount to be determined by the finder of fact.

88. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff demands judgment for punitive damages against all Defendants, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all the lower courts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants herein on all causes of action, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
